Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing Jack Crist for his Twenty Six Years of Service with the City of Sacramento

WHEREAS, for more than 26 years, Jack Crist has been a dedicated and skillful manager with the City of Sacramento, first as chief accountant, then director of finance, and for the last fourteen years, serving as Deputy City Manager for a variety of different departments; and

WHEREAS, Jack has been an extremely valuable asset to the City of Sacramento, not only to the citizens of this city, but also to the City Council, Charter Officers, Deputy City Managers, management and employees; and

WHEREAS, for the past three years Jack has been responsible for the Neighborhoods, Planning and Development Services Department and through his expert management skills the group performed outstanding service in the face of major financial shortfalls and significant challenges; and

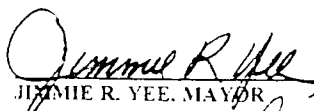

WHEREAS, Jack is widely known for arriving to work well before sunrise and calls it a day well after the sun has set, and has assisted the City through thick and thin on many occasions; and

WHEREAS, Jack dealt successfully with the floods of 1986 and 1995, came to the assistance of a Councilmember whose home was firebombed, and aided the community when dastardly attacks were made upon three synagogues; and

WHEREAS, the Sacramento City Council is deeply indebted to Jack Crist for his 26 years of exemplary service to the City of Sacramento and will not forget his dedication, professionalism and devotion to this city.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby express our deepest gratitude for the 26 years of dedicated service Jack Crist has given the City of Sacramento and do hereby wish him success as the new City Manager of Modesto.

ISSUED: This 28th Day of March 2000.
