

Youth of the Month Award

Julia Hidalgo

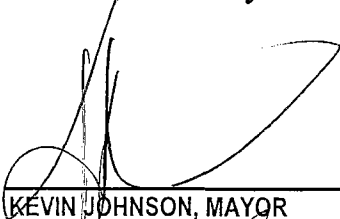

Congratulations, you have been selected as the City of Sacramento Youth of the Month. This prestigious award is only given to one outstanding youth in Sacramento each month. The selection process was competitive and the City of Sacramento Youth Commission and City staff members enthusiastically selected you as the award recipient.

The Youth of the Month Program is designed to highlight good deeds and accomplishments of youth in the City of Sacramento. Your award will be presented at a Sacramento City Council Meeting. You will also receive a plaque, a $200 award and be invited to attend an annual dinner of all awardees to be hosted by the Office of Youth Development.

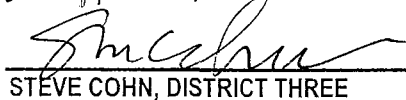

We are inspired that you have committed yourself to service in so many avenues. Your work on the Christian Brothers High School Student Council helps to bring youth voice to the forefront in decision making at your school. You've also served your community by helping to provide breakfast to women in need through the Wellspring Woman's Shelter. Last fall you helped to organize a fundraiser for scholarships benefitting foster youth who are approaching age 18 and at risk of losing their services.

More recently, your efforts with the VIBE Foundation on establishing a safe place for Sacramento Youth show your dedication and your many talents. You offer not only your time and energy, but your artistry as well by creating and producing promotional films for the project. At the same time, you keep a part-time job and maintain a 3.8 grade point average.

We admire your hard work and commitment to community service. Congratulations!
