I am a owner of the property, or my employees who act as their sole proprietor, will do the work, and the structure is not intended or offered for sale. (See Section 7044, Business and Professional Code). The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves a structure and who does such work himself or herself, through his or her own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended or offered for sale. However, the building or improvement is sold within one year of completion, the owner will have the burden of proving that he/she did not intend to improve for the purpose of sale.

I am a owner of the property, am exclusively contracting with licensed contractors to construct the project (See Section 7044, Business and Professions Code). The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves a structure, and who contracts for such projects with a contractor licensed pursuant to the Contractors License Law.

I am exempt from the Contractors License Law for the reason: _____
