STAFF PRESENT:

Consuelo Underwood gave out copies of proposed panel selection and list of RFQ developments from March 7 meeting.

Armando Cid discussed conflict of interest with Project Architect. Freeman Tinnin said he believed the Art in Public Places policies should remain as written, explaining that City staff do have places for input such as RFQ development and attending Art in Public Places and Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission meetings.

Donna Shelloe felt the process was fine and to leave it as is.

A motion was made to keep the artist selection process as it is now, and for City staff to relay problems to the Art in Public Places Committee. (M/S: Cid/Tinnin). Motion passed unanimously.

Armando requested statistics on Art in Public Places projects be brought to the March 21 meeting.
