OWNER - BUILDER DECLARATION

I hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that I am exempt from the Contractors License Law for the following reason (See: 7031.5, Business and Professions Code: Any city or county which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he or she is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code) or that he or she is exempt therefrom and the basis for the alleged exemption. Any violation of Section 7031.5 by any applicant for a permit subjects the applicant to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00).

I, as owner of the property, or my employees with wages as their sole compensation, will do the work, and the structure is not intended to be offered for sale (See 7044, Business and Professions Code. The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon and who does such work himself or herself or through his or her own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended to be offered for sale. However, the building or improvement is sold within one year of completion, the owner/builder will have the burden of proving that he or she is exempt from the Contractors License Law.)

I, as owner of the property, am exempt from the Contractors License Law because the license law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon and who contracts for such projects with a contractor's licensed pursuant to the Contractors License Law.

I am exempt under Section 7044.5 of the Contractors License Law for this reason: _____
