SUBJECT: PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT FEES

SUMMARY

The Planning and Development Department has completed a review of its fees and service delivery capabilities. This report includes fee recommendations necessary to achieve full cost recovery for fee related services.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Fees for user services provided by the Planning and Development Department were last updated in 1989. At that time, the fees were adjusted to achieve full revenue recovery for those departmental services performed for identified properties or individuals (ie; permit and application processing, inspection services and weed or nuisance abatement).

The combination of no fee increase in over two years, additional review requirements placed on many activities and the current construction recession have left departmental revenue significantly under the recovery goals. In the 1989-90 fiscal year revenue was $1.2 million under the recovery goal. This fiscal year the shortfall is anticipated to be $1.4 million, even with significant expenditure reductions in response to the drop in workload. If no fee adjustments are made, the shortfall is expected to exceed $2 million in the 1991-92 fiscal year. (See Exhibit "A").

The 1989-90 and current year shortfalls have been primarily offset by General Fund support (revenue from sources other than departmental fees). With the General Fund outlook for next fiscal year, it is recommended that funds not be made available for this purpose. Two other options remain to achieve a cost/revenue balance; 1) decreasing cost and services or 2) increasing fees.

The option of decreasing cost and service has been evaluated and the departmental budget recommendation for 1991-92 will include cost reductions in response to the decline in service demand. However, the achievement of a full cost/revenue balance will require a significant reduction in level of service. This reduction will increase processing times and inspection delays (overloads). It will also result in decreasing the scope of reviews and increasing appeals and legal challenges to departmental and city land use decisions. The Department is currently maintaining 28 vacant positions, which approximates the cuts that would be required if no fee increase is approved, and service levels are already eroding.

To avoid the continued erosion of service levels it is recommended that departmental fees be adjusted to a level that will allow the continuation of existing service goals. This fee level will allow the department to achieve cost recovery goals in all areas. The fee adjustments required to meet this goal are described below.

PROPOSED FEE ADJUSTMENTS

Based on the continued review of services and fees, it is recommended that new fees be established for some services which are currently provided without a fee and that most existing user fees be generally increased to achieve full cost recovery.

NEW FEES

New fees are recommended for the services listed below:

- Transportation System Management Plan
- Non-conforming use verification
- Infill development special permit
- Administrative review/Ordinance interpretation
- Annexations
- 65402 Review
- Staff Investigation and Research
- Development Agreements

FULL COST RECOVERY/EXISTING FEES

Listed below are the Department's major service activities and the rate of the proposed fee increase.

Commercial Plan Check	29%
Residential Plan Check	4%
Building Inspections	37%
Planning Application Review	96%

The proposed fees have been compared with other jurisdictions and have been found to be within the range charged by other agencies. Documentation of these comparisons by fee type is provided in Exhibit B.

The above mentioned fees reflect cost recovery of existing service levels only. The revenue provided from these fees will not fund any service or budget augmentations. The Department is continuing to address a reorganization and augmentation for the Planning Division and technology issues department wide. Additional fees or fee increases may be needed to implement these issues.

Appeal fees and Design Review and Preservation fees were not adjusted due to unresolved policy considerations. Future reports will be prepared on these specific fees to allow City Council consideration and action on these policy issues.

The Department and Budget Office have meet with representatives of the Builders' Exchange, Building Industry Association, Association of General Contractors, American Institute of Architects (Central Valley Chapter) over the past year to discuss the proposed fee adjustments.

POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

The fee proposal continues the policy adopted by the City Council of achieving full cost recovery for development related services.

MBE/WBE CONSIDERATIONS

Not applicable.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The proposed fees will generate approximately $8,665,173 (See Exhibit A) in revenue, which is $2,200,000 greater than the revenue projection utilizing current fees. This report makes no recommendations on departmental appropriation levels.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Budget and Finance/Transportation and Community Development Committee receive testimony on the fee proposal and recommend adoption of the attached resolution to amend the fee and charge report for the Planning and Development Department.

- C. Housing Rehabilitation Program Projects - Construction projects identified by the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency as owner occupied, single family housing rehabilitation program projects are exempt from building permit fees. However, if work commences prior to obtaining the required permits, all fees and penalties shall be chargeable to the project. This provision does not exempt payment of any other fees associated with issuing the building permit.
- D. Residential Hot Water or Gas Stove or Range - The fee shall be $16 for each unit installed.
- E. If work commenced prior to receiving a building permit, the building permit fee shall be quadrupled. If the permit fee is $250 or above, the fee will be $500 plus double the permit fee. If a residential hot water or gas stove or range is installed without an approved installment tag, the permit fee shall be $84.

II. Other Permits

A. Wrecking of Demolition Permit (includes sewer disconnect)

- first story up to 5,000 sq. ft. in area $105
- each additional 1,000 sq. ft. 10
- each story above first 50% of first story

Revision #91 - 05

B. Moving Permit

- Moving a structure to a site inside the city boundaries - $125 plus $30 per hour
- The Director of Planning and Development may waive all or part of the moving permit fee for structures moved for governmental jurisdictions.

C. Site Improvement or Grading Permit

- Site permits will be based on the building permit fee schedule (Section I.B.) with valuation determined by the Manager of the Building Inspection Division.

III. Plan Check Fees

- A. Plan check fees shall be based on the project valuation as determined by the Manager of the Building Inspections Division (Section 9.49 City Code).
- B. Commercial Plan check fees will be assessed based on the following tables. The valuation for the structure and the site will be used to determine project valuation.
