Exhibit A

POLICY

AUTHORITY

The Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Commission shall have sole authority and responsibility to name Housing Authority-owned public housing projects.

PROCEDURE

1. The Community Services Division of the Housing Department shall solicit recommendations from the initial project residents and forward such recommendations to the Commission for review and selection.
2. Where a project is located in an established Redevelopment Project Area or a Community Development Block Grant Target Area, the respective PAC or TAC shall review resident's suggestions at a public meeting and forward a recommendation to the Commission. The PAC or TAC may consider and recommend names from any source including its own membership or other community based organizations, if appropriate. If the PAC or TAC recommendations differ from the recommendation of the residents, all recommendations will be forwarded to the Commission.
3. The Commission shall consider names recommended under items 1 or 2 above, together with any others, at a public meeting and select a name for the subject public housing project.
