2. CRA/ROGERS CASEY – INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE REVIEW FOR PERIOD
ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 2002

Al Scherlie and Sarah Cleveland of CRA RogersCasey gave an investment performance overview and fielded questions from the Board. Mr. Scherlie stated that this last period has been a particularly difficult one for investments—including the bond market. There was no place to hide during this period. Barring additional terrorist attacks in the U.S., Mr. Scherlie feels the economy should be on the mend—though it will be a slow process. He doesn't see much recovery until the end of 2004. If the U.S. does go to war, he surmises that it would have only a temporary effect on our economy—with recovery within a 3 to 6-month timeframe. For the economy to continue to improve, Mr. Scherlie mentioned the need for "Corporate America" to start capital expenditures again. He also mentioned there have been signs of improvement on the international scene.

A motion was made by Mr. Vina and seconded by Mr. Sperling to move for acceptance of Items 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.
