SUBJECT: REVISION OF CITY CODE, ARTICLE V, DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS PROPERTY

PASSED FOR PUBLICATION
TO 2-11-86

SUMMARY

This report recommends the amendment of Chapter 12 of Article V, Disposition of Surplus Property, Section 12.82, of the City Code to provide for disposition of surplus property by consignment and by public auction.

BACKGROUND

On occasion, the City surpluses specialized property/equipment which is auctioned at the City's periodic surplus property auctions. There are some pieces of equipment, particularly fire apparatus, that are bought by equipment dealers, etc., at reasonable prices and resold at a considerable mark-up.

The City can increase its return up to four (4) times over what we've been getting at our public auctions held at the Corporation Yard by consigning to a used fire equipment broker our fire equipment scheduled for surplus.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

Increase the City's revenue on the disposition of specialized surplus property.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the City Council approve the attached ordinance amending Chapter 12, Article V, Section 12.82, of the City Code to provide for the disposition of surplus City property by consignment.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Mugartegui

SECTION 1

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK

Section 12.82 of the Sacramento City Code is hereby amended to read:

§12.82 Methods of disposition.

The purchasing department shall dispose of surplus property through one of the following methods:

- (a) Sale at public auction to the highest bidder. The notice of such auction must be given by publication in the official newspaper of the city no later than ten days prior to such auction. The purchasing department shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids received for any item.

In the event the purchasing department rejects any and all such bids so received, it shall not thereafter sell such property at a price less than the highest bid which it received therefore, until it shall first offer such item to the person who submitted the highest bid for such item, at the price bid. In the event such person refused to purchase such item at such price, the purchasing department may, thereafter, dispose of such property at a lesser price.

- (b) Sealed proposal; provided that the restrictions as to rejecting any and all proposals and thereafter selling the property shall be the same as those for public auctions as set forth in part (a) of this section;

- (c) Incidental sale, as provided in section 12.83. (Ord. No. 3178, §2)

- (d) Consignment. The City Council may, by resolution, determine to dispose of surplus property by putting such property out to sale on consignment if the Council finds that such method of sale is likely to bring the highest price to the city. Such resolution shall set forth the minimum price at which such property shall be sold, and shall call for bids for consignees to sell such property. At the same
