Resolution

of the City Council

Tellabration Day November 20, 1999

WHEREAS, Tellabration is a worldwide benefit event held in communities throughout the world by a network of volunteers eager to build grassroots support for storytelling; and

WHEREAS, the original scope of Tellabration was intended for adult audiences but has since evolved into whatever the community feels benefits its residents; and

WHEREAS, Tellabration began in 1988 and is open to everyone – storytelling organizations and centers, schools, libraries, colleges and universities, and story-swap groups; and

WHEREAS, Tellabration is an exciting way to spread the word about storytelling so that people, especially adults, will experience its joys, become more aware of its importance, and choose to support it.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento that we do hereby proclaim November 20, 1999 as Tellabration Day in Sacramento and urge its residents to participate in the planned activities.

ISSUED: This 9th Day of November 1999.
