DISCLOSURE OF PUBLIC RECORDS

It is the policy of the City of Sacramento to fully cooperate with the public and honor our obligation under law to provide public access to documents which are public records, while protecting individuals' right to privacy. Information pertinent to the Commission Agenda is available to read at the Commission office.

BROWN ACT INFORMATION

For purposes of the Brown Act (Govt. Code Sect. 54954.2(a)), the numbered items listed on this agenda shall be the "... brief general description of each item of business to be transacted or discussed at the meeting." The recommendations of the staff and/or committees shown on this agenda do not prevent the Commission from taking other action.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS

While the Commission welcomes and encourages participation in the meetings, you are requested to limit your comments to three minutes so that everyone may be heard. Public testimony will be permitted on each agenda item as it is called. Matters under the jurisdiction of the Commission, and not on the posted agenda, may be addressed by the general public following the completion of the regular agenda and any off-agenda matters before the Commission for consideration. The commission limits testimony on matters not on the agenda to three minutes per person and not more than fifteen minutes for a particular subject.

D. APPROVE: CAA GRANT AWARDS (ROSENBERG/AULENBACHER)

Staff is seeking approval of funding for the 2007-09 Cultural Arts Awards. The Panel met in October, 2006. The total request was $2,505,592, of which $700,622.95 was funded. Pie charts were presented that represent the breakout by type of arts groups and locations. All 57 applicants were scored within fundable range and are being recommended for funding. Halpern commended Aulenbacher and Rosenberg for the excellent facilitation of the panel as well as the technical assistance provided all of which helped to overcome a past history of appeals. Halpern reiterated that graphs on pages 10 - 11 will demonstrate our accountability across the region to City Council members and the County Board of Supervisors. Geiger noted that the funding breakdown was richly diverse.

COMMISSION ACTION: The vote to approve proposed funding for the Arts and Business Council was passed with 9 yes, 0 no, 2 absent, 1 abstention by Commissioner Geiger. The vote to approve proposed funding for the Crocker Art Museum and California Musical Theater was passed with 9 yes, 0 no, 2 absent and 1 abstention by Commissioner Merksamer. The vote to approve proposed funding for the Sacramento Youth Symphony was passed with 8 yes, 0 no, 2 absent, 2 abstentions by Commissioners Merksamer and Gorfain. The vote to approve proposed funding for the remaining 53 applicants was passed with a vote of 10 yes, 0 no, 2 absent and 0 abstentions.

VI. UPDATE:

Halpern thanked everyone involved in the planning and participation of the Training/Game Show Event. Universal feedback was that the event was very positive experience but too long.

VII. PRESENTATIONS: City Leadership Workshop – Remi Mendoza

Remi Mendoza – Planner for the City of Sacramento, Long-range Planning Department

Remi explained that Commissioners should have received an invitation and letter from Mayor Heather Fargo for the City Leadership Workshop on February 20, 2007. This will take place at the Library Galleria from 5:00 – 9:00 p.m., and will include the Mayor and City Council members, City Charter members and City Department heads. The focus will be on the General Plan's responsiveness to expected regional growth in next ten years. Thirty public workshops were held across the region, covering topics such as planning for the expansion, transportation, tall buildings and urban sprawl. The workshop results will be presented. Invitees will also have a chance to contribute ideas as well. Event will be fun, interactive, with visual simulations and engaging exercises. Hold date, February 20, 2007, 5 – 9 pm. A follow up letter will be forthcoming with RSVP information.

VII. WORKSHOPS: Parliamentary Procedure Training – Stephanie Mizuno
Mizuno reviewed the topics related to Establishing Documents, Communication, Flow of Action, Categories of Presentation Items, Motions, Voting and Commission Attendance. (An overview of that presentation will be ready in March).
