

8.1
6/3/97

THE PARTIES IN vs Lowes & Fisher, et al,
~~Lowes & Fisher, the City of Sacramento, and the other parties~~ to the lawsuit pending in the Sacramento Superior Court have agreed to continue settlement discussions through mediation. The mediators facilitating the settlement discussions will be Richard Gilbert, retired Superior Court Judge, and Kathleen Kelly, Associate Dean for McGeorge School of Law. All activity in connection with the lawsuit will cease for a period of approximately thirty (30) days to enable focus on achieving agreement regarding disputes and common interests. The parties have expressed their resolve to dedicate themselves to achieving resolution. "We believe the decision to participate in mediation demonstrates that both sides appreciate the importance of both providing important social services and promoting sensible land use regulation and neighborhood planning." Gilbert and Kelly.

AS modified by See

Loaves & Fishes, the City of Sacramento, and the other parties to the lawsuit pending in the Sacramento Superior Court have agreed to continue settlement discussions through mediation. The mediators facilitating the settlement discussions will be Richard Gilbert, retired Superior Court Judge, and Kathleen Kelly, Associate Dean for McGeorge School of Law. All activity in connection with the lawsuit will cease for a period of approximately thirty (30) days to enable focus on achieving agreement regarding disputes and common interests. The parties have expressed their resolve to dedicate themselves to achieving resolution. "We believe the decision to participate in mediation demonstrates that both sides appreciate the importance of both providing important social services and promoting sensible land use regulation and neighborhood planning." Gilbert and Kelly.

Original mediators by