CITY CLERK

Earth Day April 22, 1999

WHEREAS, Earth Day is a day honoring where we are today as a society while promoting steps towards a socially economically and environmentally sustainable future; and

WHEREAS, Earth Day is a community opportunity for residents, civic and religious groups, businesses and government to join in celebration of the Earth and to commit to working for its preservation and restoration; and

WHEREAS, on April 25, the Sacramento region's Earth Day Festival '99 is being held at California State University, Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, Earth Day 1999 is the kick-off for a year's events and activities leading to Earth Day 2000 with the theme of "New Energy for a New Era", which reflects the City of Sacramento's commitment to work towards a society which can meet its own energy needs while preserving the ability for future generations to meet their energy needs; and

WHEREAS, moving towards a community which promotes energy efficiency and sustains itself with clean, renewable energy sources requires commitment, community support, and careful, coordinated planning at all levels of government.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby acknowledge April 22, 1999 as Earth Day.

ISSUED: This 20th Day of May 1999.
