Funding will be provided by the Community Center and SHRA.

BACKGROUND

On March 24, 1989 the City Council approved a Request for Proposal for a consultant to develop a Downtown Cultural and Entertainment District Master Plan. Requests for proposals were sent to 81 firms and five proposals were received.

These proposals were reviewed by an evaluation committee consisting of representatives from the Planning Division, the Community Center, SHRA, the Finance Department, the Metropolitan Arts Commission and Sacramento Tomorrow Coalition. Based on the review of the proposals, three firms were selected for interview by the evaluation committee. These firms and the cost of the proposal are:

Halycon	$60,000.
Williams-Kuebelbeck & Associates	59,955.
Economic Research Associates	60,000.

Based upon the interviews & evaluation of the proposals, the committee recommends that the City enter into an agreement with Williams-Kuebelbeck & Associates to prepare the Downtown Cultural and Entertainment District Master Plan.

POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

The consultant selection process utilized for this contract is in conformance with City policy on consultant selection.

MBE/WBE CONSIDERATIONS

Potential MBE/WBE vendors were identified from both the City and SHRA's rosters of certified MBE/WBE firms. Eighteen of these firms were sent requests for proposals. None of these firms submitted a proposal for consideration. The selected consultant is not an MBE/WBE vendor.

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

The cost of this study will be $59,955. The Community Center will contribute $35,000. SHRA has identified $25,000 to contribute to this project.
