Resolution

of the City Council

Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF Day October 31, 2002

WHEREAS, "Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF" began in Philadelphia in 1950 when a youth group collected seventeen dollars in decorated milk cartons on Halloween to help children overseas; and

WHEREAS, since that time, children in the United States have collected more than $115 million by going door-to-door with the U.S. Fund for UNICEF's trademark orange collection boxes on Halloween; and

WHEREAS, today, "Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF" provides the opportunity for school children and young adults to learn about their peers in the developing world, while also raising funds to help improve their lives; and

WHEREAS, fundraising efforts like "Trick-or-Trick for UNICEF" have helped 80 percent of the world's children become immunized against the top six deadliest diseases, saving three million lives each year; and

WHEREAS, in 2001, $4 million was collected in the nearly five million "Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF" collection boxes that were distributed across the United States, in every state; and

WHEREAS, the "Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF" program provides children of the United States the chance to perform a selfless deed and gain a valuable educational experience, giving them a better sense of the world in which they live and the lives of other children around the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize the "Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF" program, and proclaim October 31, 2002 to be Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF Day in the City of Sacramento.

ISSUED: This 22nd Day of October 2001.
