RE: ORDINANCE ALLOWING DONATION OF UNCLAIMED BICYCLES TO CHARITIES

Members in Session:

The Law and Legislation Committee considered the attached ordinance at its meeting on January 24, 1980.

The Police Department would continue to sell the vast majority of bicycles at the City auction. If this amendment passes, however, they would give a few bicycles to charitable organizations at Christmas time. The organizations would be obligated to donate the bicycles to needy children residing in the City of Sacramento.

Approval of the attached ordinance is recommended.

RE: ORDINANCE ALLOWING DONATION OF UNCLAIMED
BICYCLES TO CHARITIES

Members in Session:

Under current city ordinances, lost and unclaimed property which cannot be returned to its owner must be turned over to the city purchasing department for sale (Sacramento City Code §12.93). The Police Department asked this office to prepare an amendment to §12.93 which would allow the city to donate lost and unclaimed bicycles and toys to charitable organizations.

The attached ordinance would amend §12.93 to allow the chief of police to donate lost and unclaimed bicycles and toys to charitable organizations, provided that the organizations agree in writing to donate such property in turn to needy children of the City of Sacramento.

Very truly yours,

DAVID BENJAMIN
Deputy City Attorney
