OWNER - BUILDER DECLARATION

I hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that I am exempt from the Contractors License Law for the following reason (Sec. 7031.5, Business and Professions Code): Any city or county which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he or she is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code) or that he or she is exempt therefrom and the basis for the alleged exemption. Any violation of Section 7031.5 by any applicant for a permit subjects the applicant to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00).

I, as owner of the property or my employees with wages as their sole compensation will do the work and the structure is not intended or offered for sale (Sec. 7044, Business and Professions Code). The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who does such work himself or herself or through his or her own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended or offered for sale. If however, the building or improvement is sold with the view of completing the contractor will have the burden of proving that he or she had no intent or purpose for the purpose of sale.

I, as owner of the property, am contracting, contracting with licensed contractors for construction of the project. See 7012, Business and Professions Code. The Contractor License Law, Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, and the Contractors License Law, Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, apply to this project.
