

Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing Lupe Marnach

WHEREAS, Lupe Marnach is retiring after working for the City of Sacramento since May of 1980, with a short absence between December 1995 and March 1998; and

WHEREAS, Lupe began in the Labor Relations Department as a trainee and wound up running the show half of the time; and

WHEREAS, at one point in time, Lupe covered the entire City solo for over a year; and

WHEREAS, though her plans were to become a Union Representative fighting for farm laborers, Lupe later came over to the management side of the Department to infiltrate and do right by employees from the inside; and

WHEREAS, Lupe gained respect as a young female Labor Relations Officer by standing up to the "old boys" and telling jokes as well as they did; and

WHEREAS, Lupe's favorite saying in response to any negative comment is "You say that like it was a bad thing"; and

WHEREAS, Lupe is embarking on the toughest job of all – full-time grandmotherhood.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize Lupe Marnach for 18 years of dedicated service within the Labor Relations Department and wish her the best success in future endeavors, as she will be dearly missed by all who have come to know her.

ISSUED: This 12th Day of July 2001.
