Background Information:

- The City and County of Sacramento created the City-County Office of Metropolitan Water Planning (CCOMWP) in 1991 to pursue a joint water planning effort in the greater Sacramento region. Over the past 16 years the City and the County, and other stakeholder agencies, have devoted significant resources to the Water Forum process and the Water Forum Successor Effort (WFSE). This process and the successful outcome of these efforts are well documented. A large share of the success can be attributed to the dedication of the staff of the CCOMWP and the various regional stakeholders who had the desire to arrive at an amenable solution to the region's water supply and water resource issues.
- The continuation of this dedication is necessary to maintain the successes that have been so long in obtaining. This includes maintaining a level of stewardship over the Water Forum Agreement as a policy and technical resource. Activities related to the WFSE require constant following up to tie back to the intent in the Water Forum Agreement and making sure that each is completed and acted upon by the stakeholders to a point of mutual agreement by consensus.
- Since its inception the CCOMWP employed Jim McCormack, a principal civil engineer, to take on a portion of the above responsibilities. Mr. McCormack retired in July 2006. The CCOMWP is seeking a similar position to fill the role that was served by Mr. McCormack in a contractual manner.
- The CCOMWP is seeking a contract with Jonathan Goetz to fill this consultant position as Mr. Goetz is uniquely qualified to provide technical assistance to the WFSE in the area of water supply and water resource issues. Mr. Goetz began working for the Sacramento County Water Agency in 1987 as a principal engineer. From 1993 through 1998 he served as a representative in the Water Forum process on behalf of the County. He worked closely with Water Forum staff, including Jim McCormack, authoring the technical documents that were central to the Water Forum process. Following his work with the County Mr. Goetz was employed in the private sector by a company that contracted for engineering services with the County. During this time Mr. Goetz was tasked with serving as a representative on the Central Sacramento County Groundwater Forum, a process to develop governance in the County's central groundwater basin as called for in the Water Forum Agreement. Mr. Goetz was part of the team that developed the groundwater management plan for the central groundwater basin as part of this process.
