The driveway of the property to the south is located adjacent to the proposed addition.

Project Plans: See Exhibit A

Environmental Determination:

This project will not have a significant effect on the environment and is exempt from environmental review pursuant to State EIR Guidelines (California Environmental Quality Act, Section 15301(e)).

Conditions of Approval

1. Building materials shall be compatible with the exterior materials of the residence.
2. The location and square footage of the addition shall substantially conform to the plans submitted.
3. The applicant shall obtain all necessary building permits prior to the construction of the addition.

Findings of Fact

1. The project, as conditioned, is based upon sound principles of land use in that:
 - a. the existing side yard setback on the south property line is three feet; and
 - b. the proposed addition will not substantially alter the characteristics of the site or the surrounding neighborhood.
2. The project will not be detrimental to the public health, safety or welfare, nor result in the creation of a nuisance in that:
 - a. adequate access to the rear yard will continue to be provided; and
 - b. the proposed design of the addition is compatible with the existing residence and surrounding residential uses.
3. The project is consistent with the General Plan which designates the site for Low Density Residential uses.

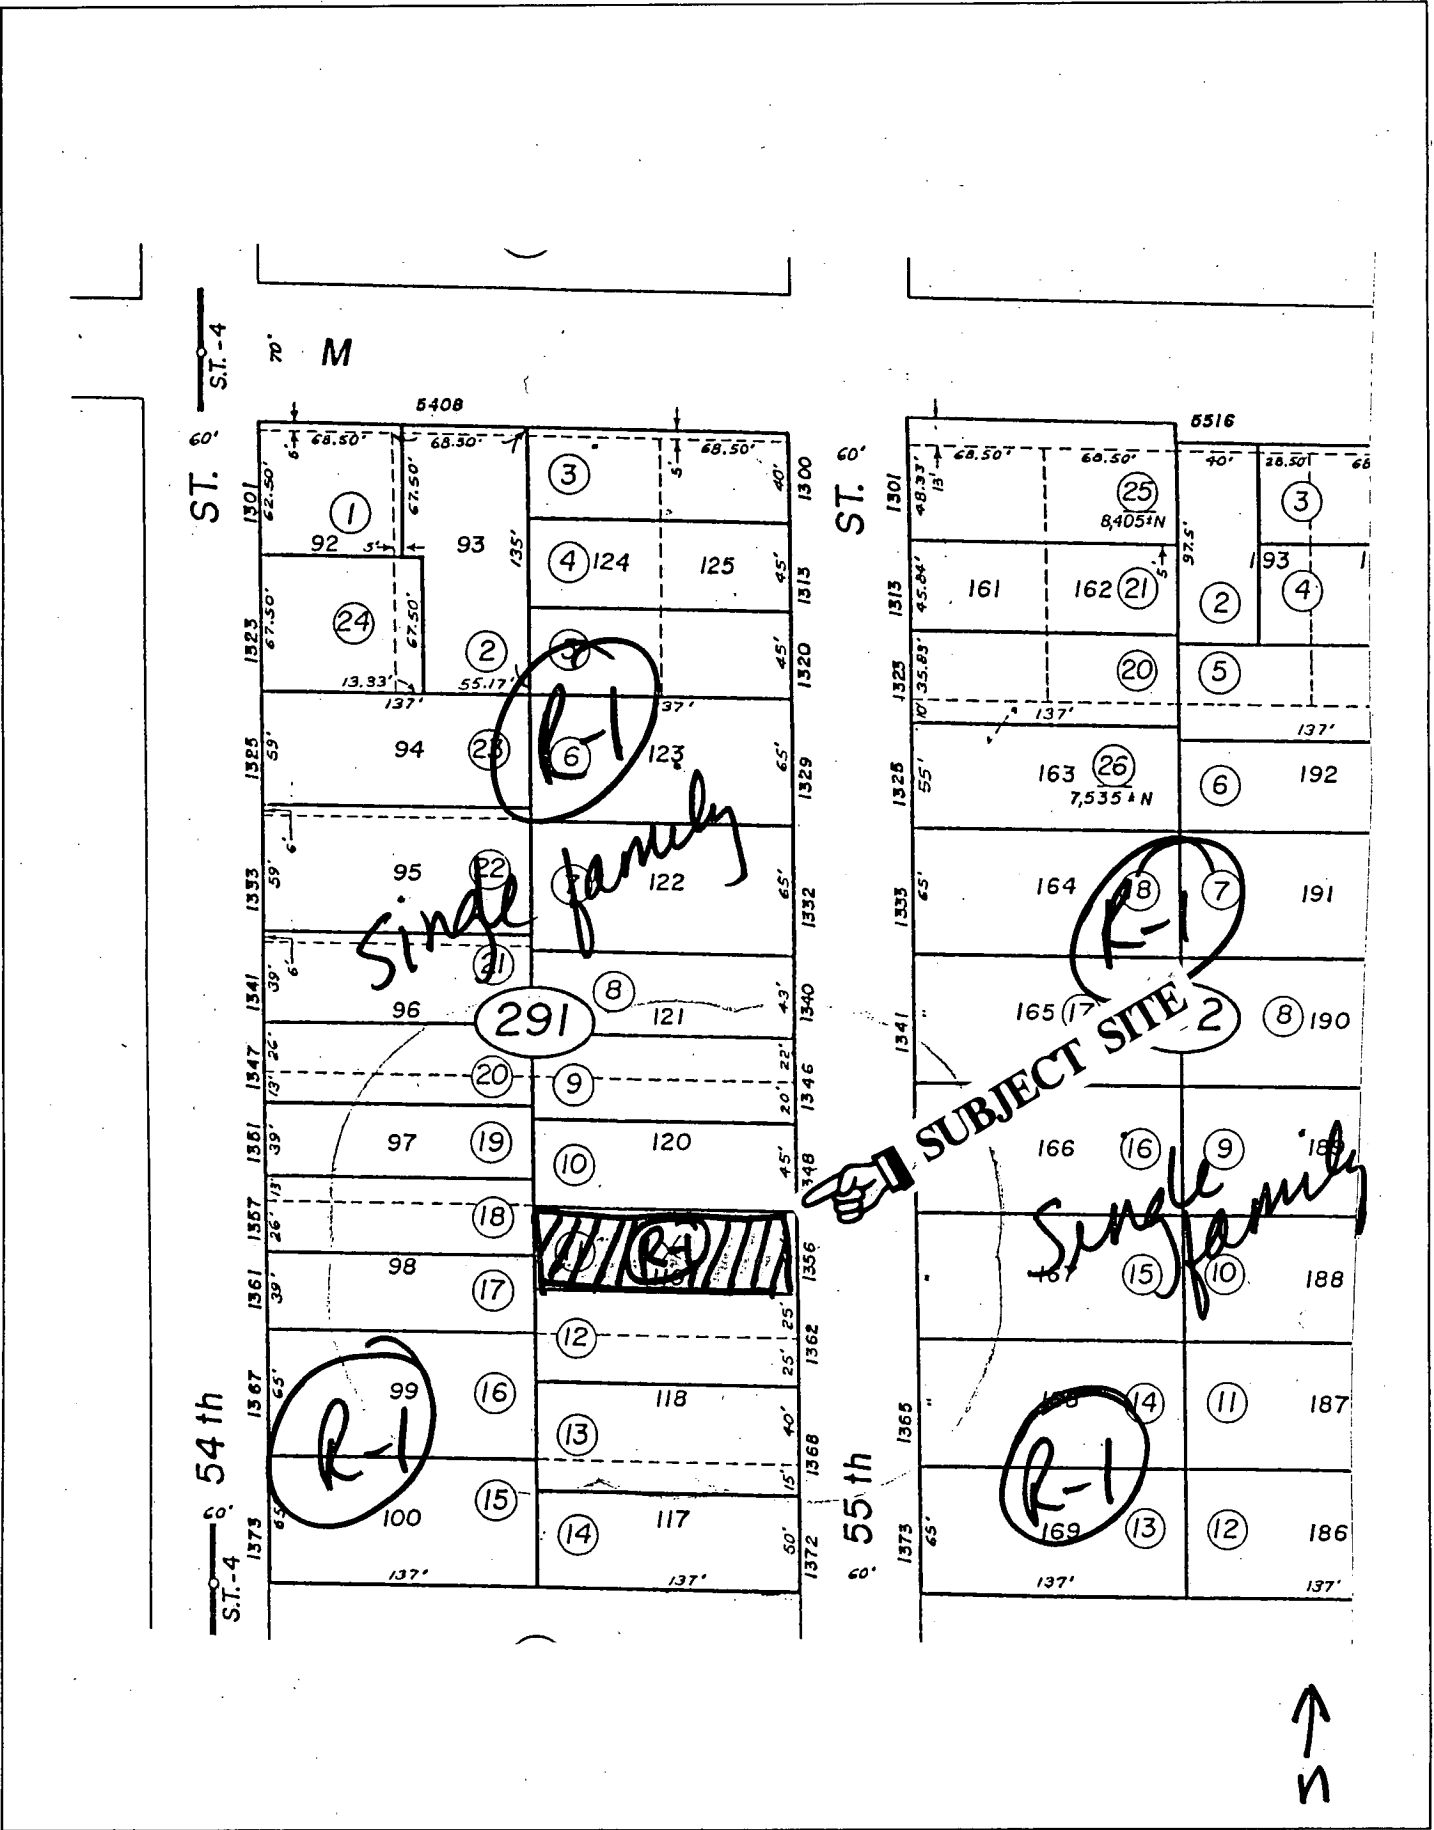

Joy D. Patterson
Zoning Administrator

A use for which a Special Permit is granted must be established within two years after such permit is approved. If such use is not so established the Special Permit shall be deemed to have expired and shall be null and void. A Special Permit use which requires a Building Permit shall be deemed established when such Building Permit is secured and construction thereunder physically commenced. If no building permit is required, the use shall be deemed established when the activity permitted has been commenced.

The decision of the Zoning Administrator may be appealed to the Planning Commission. An appeal must be filed within 10 days of the Zoning Administrator's hearing. If an appeal is not filed, the action of the Zoning Administrator is final.
