OWNER - BUILDER DECLARATION

I hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that I am exempt from the Contractors License Law for the following reason (See 7031.5, Business and Professions Code): Any city or county which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he or she is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or that he or she is an exempt contractor and the basis for the above exception. Any violation of Section 7045 by any applicant for a permit imposes the applicant the full penalty of not more than five hundred dollars per day.

I am owner of the property on which employees with wages as their sole compensation will do the work and the structure is not intended or offered for sale or lease. Business and Professions Code. The contractors license law does not apply to an owner of property who holds a property, election, and who does not employ any person to do the work. I have provided that such person to do the work and intended to do so. However, the building or structure is not intended to be used for the purpose of a sale or lease.
