REED, RAYMOND

Laborer Ex. #83

Mr. Reed appeared before the Board explaining that during the confusion resulting from the wind storm of February 9, 1938, he felt that he should have been employed rather than employing others who were not from eligible registers. He further explained that due to the confusion of employment at that time he reported to the Corporation Yard and was employed only one day, thereafter being laid off. Board members recalled that Mr. Reed had discussed the matter with them during the period of the storm and also that Mr. Reed had failed to report February 10, 1938, after being requested to do so; hence his name was removed from the Laborer eligible register. After discussion the Board advised Mr. Reed they would review his case entirely and advise him of their decision.
