Dear Council Members,

Thank you for reconsidering when citizens may speak at Council Meetings. I am not disabled nor I homeless. I am a citizen of this city and have been for 43 years. There are many older people who would enjoy adding their expertise or counsel to your meetings -- they cannot stay up forever waiting to vote. Please don't take out your wrath on older citizens that have supported this city for so long. You may not like to hear all the messages that you hear -- but we do belong to a democracy -- of the people, for the people. We have a right to be heard. Time limits on what we say can be a help to you -- i suggest two or three minutes, certainly no more than 5 minutes. People can prepare what they want to say. Or they could write one page and it could be read to the council.

\
Most sincerely,

Dr. David H. Warren

Please thank the Mayor and City Council members for their decision to reconsider allowing public comments to be heard at the beginning of the meetings rather than after all other business has been heard. I believe this is the right thing to do and represents a victory for participatory democracy.

Please distribute this to Mayor and all Council members.

Thank you for reconsidering the public testimony at the beginning of Council Meetings. This is essential to give all citizens an opportunity to be heard. The Council should be a Representative democracy and all need to be heard.

Thank you for restoring the public testimony to the beginning. Fr. Larry Dunphy, OFM

Greetings.

Thank you for the decision to allow the public to address their concerns at the beginning of city council meetings. This is no small matter, as the silencing of the people is a form of oppression, and an attack on democracy. Though it may be uncomfortable/unpleasant to hear peoples truths, the job of leadership is to represent and serve the people - and use their input to shape policy. The public voice is to steer your concious, not repulse it.

Thanks!

Adrian

I am so pleased that the council is reconsidering the placement of the public's time to address the council to the beginning of the agenda.

Providing time at the beginning of each meeting, certainly allows better access for citizens to have a voice in issues of concern.

I can't imagine having to wait for hours in the evening for the opportunity to speak.

Please forward this note to the members of the City Council and to Mayor Johnson.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary Louise Walter

RE: City Council Decision Limiting Early Public Comment

Dear Mayor Johnson and City Council Members,

On behalf of the citizens of the City of Sacramento, League of Women Voters is disappointed with the recent decision to trail the "Public Forum/Public Comment" portion of the City Council agenda to the end of the meeting. The Brown Act requirement to allow citizens to bring important items, which do not otherwise appear on the agenda, to the attention of the Council is an essential component of a representative democracy. This decision means it may now be impossible for you to hear legitimate concerns from those whom you represent because some of us may not be able to wait through a lengthy Council meeting for the opportunity to speak at a very late hour. Those dependent on public transit must catch the last bus/train by 9 p.m.

League of Women Voters proposes an alternative course of action that allows the City to comply with the intent of the Brown Act as well as just the letter of the law. If the City wishes to avoid long delays at the beginning of the meeting because of the public forum agenda item, then it can do so fairly, through the effective control of the meeting by the Mayor. Under the Brown Act, the presiding officer may limit the total number of speakers and the total time allocated for any agenda item. The League suggests that each speaker be allowed 3 minutes with a total time not to exceed 12 minutes at the beginning of the meeting. If additional time is needed to accommodate a larger number of speakers, then the "overflow" can be trailed to the end of the meeting.

Please consider this alternative because it will enhance fairness with a very tiny time cost at the beginning of the meeting. We urge the City Council to reevaluate its decision to push back the "Public Forum/Public Comment" to a time when most citizens will not be able to avail themselves of their rights under the law.

Sincerely,
