

RESOLUTION NO.2006-039

Adopted by the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Sacramento

June 13, 2006

700 BLOCK OF K STREET DISPOSITION AND DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT WITH ZEIDEN PROPERTIES, LLC

BACKGROUND

- A. The 700 block of K Street is identified in the Second Amendment to the Merged Downtown Sacramento Redevelopment Plan as having continuing blighting conditions characterized by vacant and deteriorating buildings, uneconomic land uses, and small and irregularly sized lots not suitable for modern use.
- B. In January 2005, the Redevelopment Agency (Agency) approved the issuance of a Request for Proposal (RFP) to property owners of the properties on the 700 block of K Street, as well as portions of the 800 block of K Street. Zeiden Properties, LLC (Zeiden) submitted proposals for both the 700 and 800 blocks of K Street.
- C. On August 16, 2005, the Agency adopted a resolution concluding the RFP process and selected Zeiden for the redevelopment of the 700 Block and Saca Development, LLC, M.H. Mohanna and Urban Innovation Partners, LLC (Saca) for a portion of the 800 block.
- D. On April 18, 2006, the Agency approved the execution of five separate, but interrelated agreements to complete the assembly and transfer of the properties within the two blocks as well as establishing the parameter for individual project negotiations. One of the agreements was the Exclusive Negotiation Agreement (ENA) with Zeiden containing specific milestones to perform to further refine the development concept.
