OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK

Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing California State University, Sacramento's 53rd Annual Homecoming and 1st Annual Parents' Weekend

WHEREAS, California State University, Sacramento (CSUS) was established in 1947 and is now the sixth largest university in the 23 campus CSU system, enrolling a diverse student body of nearly 29,000; and

WHEREAS, the CSUS Alumni Association was established in 1950, currently totaling 162,689 alumni, including many distinguished leaders in business, industry, government, the arts and other professions in the Sacramento region and throughout the state and nation; and

WHEREAS, CSUS contributes greatly to the economic well-being and culture of the City of Sacramento through the outstanding teaching and learning exchange that takes place on campus, as well as its programs, events and community outreach; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of the CSUS Alumni Association, the Associated Students Incorporated and the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, CSUS is proud to present the 53rd Annual Homecoming in conjunction with the 1st Annual Parents' Weekend from October 19 - 25, 2003; and

WHEREAS, the entire campus community will be involved in presenting a remarkable week of programs, events and activities designed to bring alumni back to campus, to further educate parents on the academic excellence of CSUS, to showcase the accomplishments of students, faculty and alumni, to introduce the alumni and the community to the exciting growth of the campus and facilities and to allow parents to share the collegiate experience with their children; and

WHEREAS, CSUS has extended the invitation to the community at large to join in the programs, events and activities of Homecoming 2003 and Parents' Weekend and to enjoy the cultural and academic wealth of its campus.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize California State University, Sacramento's 53rd Annual Homecoming and 1st Annual Parents' Weekend and extend our best wishes for a successful week of events.

ISSUED: This 14th Day of October 2003.
