

RESOLUTION NO. 289

WHEREAS, the California State Fair and Exposition attracts thousands of visitors to Sacramento to view the State's latest developments in agriculture, industry, commerce, education and art; and

WHEREAS, these outstanding displays are not only educational, interesting and entertaining, but actually provide the inspiration among California citizens for greater accomplishment;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Sacramento that the California State Fair and Exposition is one of California's finest assets, and this Council urges and invites every citizen of Sacramento to attend this instructive Exposition during the period from September 2nd to 11th, inclusive, 1938, and further suggests that every Sacramento citizen invite their friends from other communities to attend the California State Fair and Exposition held in Sacramento during that period.

PASSED, July 29th, 1938.

Adopted by the City Council on date of July 30th, 1938 by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen Anderson, Arnold, Coughlin, Monk, Truesdale, Welsh
ABSENT: Councilmen Bidwell, Harry, Kunz.

CITY CLERK.

MAYOR.