Resolution

of the City Council

Honoring Beutler Heating & Air Conditioning 50 Years of Service to Sacramento

WHEREAS, Beutler Heating & Air Conditioning was founded in 1947 by Del Beutler, in his garage, and is this year celebrating its fiftieth year in business; and

WHEREAS, Del Beutler passed the management of the company to Gary Beutler, his son, who carried on the Beutler tradition of fine service to its customers and its commitment to workplace excellence; and

WHEREAS, Gary Beutler through years of long hours, dedication to goals and astute business planning, has grown Beutler Heating and Air Conditioning into the largest heating and air company in California; and

WHEREAS, Gary Beutler passed on the management of the company to Rick Wylie, president; and

WHEREAS, Rick Wylie, who worked his way up from service technician to company president, and whose innovative ideas for new products has made the company an industry technology leader, is now carrying on the Beutler tradition of offering equal opportunity careers, advancement training, benefits and an excellent working environment for the company's four hundred and fifty employees.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and the Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby commend Beutler Heating and Air Conditioning for its fifty years of making Sacramentans more comfortable in their homes and most importantly, for providing quality employment for our community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we do hereby wish Beutler Heating & Air Conditioning another 50 years of growth, prosperity and service to the Sacramento community.

ISSUED: This 20th Day of January 1998.
