SUMMARY

This report recommends enactment of an ordinance amending Section 1.07.070 of the Sacramento City Code, relating to criminal sanctions, civil actions, and administrative penalties for violations of the City Code and other specified codes and requirements. The ordinance restores several provisions to Section 1.07.070(d)(4) that were inadvertently repealed in late 1997 and clarifies certain existing provisions. The specific provisions being restored are subparagraphs (d)-(g) of Section 1.01.070(d)(4).

Sanctions, Civil Actions, and Administrative Penalties

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The City has had an Administrative Penalties program since 1996. Administrative penalties are one of many tools available to facilitate code enforcement, encourage compliance with city conditions and requirements, and recover enforcement costs. Administrative penalties are imposed by the City on violators who have not been responsive to prior requests for compliance. The program provides an appeal procedure for persons upon whom penalties are imposed.

On November 18, 1997, the City Council enacted amendments to the City's Administrative Penalty program to add detailed standards for selecting the level of administrative penalty to be imposed. The November 18, 1997 ordinance inadvertently repealed some of the then-existing procedures relating to the administrative penalties process. The specific provisions being restored are subparagraphs (d)-(g) of Section 1.01.070(d)(4). This ordinance restores those sections and clarifies that it was not the City Council's intent to repeal these sections.

In addition, the proposed ordinance makes some non-substantive clarifications of existing provisions, and eliminates certain remedies for the collection of administrative penalties that the City Attorney has advised are not available to the City as a matter of law.

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

This report has no financial implications.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS

Enactment of the proposed ordinance will not have any impact on the environment and no environmental assessment is required.

POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

The purpose of the ordinance is to restate the City Council's policy with respect to administrative penalties.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 1.01.070 OF THE SACRAMENTO CITY CODE RELATING TO CRIMINAL SANCTIONS, CIVIL ACTIONS, AND ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE SACRAMENTO CITY CODE, CHARTER, UNCODIFIED ORDINANCES, UNIFORM CODES, ORDERS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SACRAMENTO:

SECTION 1.

Section 1.01.070 of the Sacramento City Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1.01.070. General penalty; continuing violations; imposition of administrative penalties.

- (a) Criminal sanctions.
 - (1) Misdemeanors and infractions. Whenever in this code, or in any other ordinance of the City, any act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense, or the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful or a misdemeanor, where no specific penalty is provided therefor, the violation of any provision of this code or any other ordinance of the City shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both a fine and imprisonment, unless the violation is specifically declared to be an infraction, in which case the violation shall be subject to and punishable as provided in Government Code Section 36900(b).
 - (2) Multiple convictions of an infraction. Any offense which would otherwise be an infraction is a misdemeanor if the defendant has been convicted of the same offense three or more times within the twelve-month period immediately preceding the commission of the offense and the convictions are alleged in the accusatory pleading. For this purpose, a bail forfeiture shall be deemed to be a conviction of the offense charged.

- (3) Separate offenses. Every day any violation of this code or any other ordinance of the City shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

- (b) Civil actions. The city attorney may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of any provision of this code or any other ordinance of the City, or to enforce administrative penalties imposed.

- (c) Administrative penalties.
 - (1) The purpose of this subsection relating to administrative penalties is to provide alternative remedies to address acts or omissions set forth in Section 1.01.070(c)(2). Violations may be corrected, abated or addressed in a number of ways. It is the intent of this subsection to provide the City with additional remedies to correct violations and, where necessary, to penalize violators for failure to comply with City codes and ordinances. The city council hereby finds and determines that enforcement of the Sacramento city code, other ordinances adopted by the City, conditions on entitlements and terms of City agreements are matters of local concern and serve important public purposes. Consistent with its powers as a charter city, the City of Sacramento adopts this administrative penalty provision in order to achieve the following goals:
 - a) To protect the public health, safety and welfare of the City of Sacramento;
 - b) To provide for an administrative process that has objective criteria for the imposition of penalties and provides for a fair process to appeal the imposition of administrative penalties;
 - c) To provide a method to penalize responsible parties who fail or refuse to comply with provisions of the City Code, ordinances, agreements, or conditions on entitlements in the City of Sacramento;
 - d) To minimize the expense and delay where the sole remedy is to pursue responsible parties in the civil or criminal justice system.

The City Council hereby establishes an administrative penalty procedure. All final administrative orders made pursuant to the procedures set forth in this subsection shall be subject to review only as provided in California Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1094.5 and 1094.6. Should any court of competent jurisdiction determine that the City must provide an appeal of any final administrative order in a manner other than set forth in Sections 1094.5 and 1094.6, then it is the intent of the city council that the administrative penalty process remain as provided herein and to provide that any appeal which is timely requested follow the procedures set forth in Government Code Section 53069.4.

- (2) Imposition of Administrative Penalties. In addition to criminal sanctions and other remedies set forth in this code, the City may impose administrative penalties for any of the acts or omissions set forth in this subsection. Administrative penalties shall be imposed, enforced, collected and reviewed in compliance with the provisions of this section. Administrative penalties may be imposed for any of the following acts or omissions:
 - a) All violations of the Sacramento city code;
 - b) All violations of the city charter and other codes or ordinances adopted by the City of Sacramento, including but not limited to the zoning ordinance;
 - c) All violations of uniform codes adopted by the City of Sacramento;
 - d) Failing to comply with any order issued by a commission, board, hearing officer or examiner or other body appointed by the city council and authorized to issue orders, including, but not limited to, the planning commission, the housing code advisory and appeals board, and the design review and preservation board.
 - e) Failing to comply with any condition or requirement imposed on or by any entitlement, permit, contract or environmental document issued or approved by the City of Sacramento;
- (3) Alternative remedy. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the City from using one or more other remedies to address violations. When the violation upon which the administrative penalty is based pertains to building, plumbing, electrical, structural or zoning provisions, the responsible party shall be provided a reasonable period of time to correct the violation prior to

(2) Service of administrative penalty order.

- a) Persons entitled to service. The administrative penalty order shall be served upon the responsible party in violation. The failure of the City official issuing the order to serve any person required herein to be served shall not invalidate any proceedings hereunder as to any other person duly served or relieve any such person from any duty or obligation imposed on him/her.
- b) If the violation is the result of a condition existing on property in the City and the City proposes to impose a lien on the property, one copy of the administrative penalty order shall also be served on each of the following if known to the City official issuing the order or disclosed from official public records: (a) the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust or other lien or encumbrance of record; and (b) the owner or holder of any lease of record. In lieu of personally serving the responsible party by personal delivery or certified mail, service of the administrative penalty order and any amended or supplemental order may be made as follows:
 - (i) In the event that service by certified return receipt mail cannot be effected or the recipient cannot be personally served, service may be made by substituted service. Substituted service may be accomplished as follows: a. - (ii) In the event the violation results from an event occurring on, or a condition existing on, property in the City and the recipient cannot be served by certified return receipt mail or cannot be personally served and has a property manager or rental agency overseeing the premises, substituted service may be made as set forth in (a) above upon the property manager or rental agency.
- (iii) If the responsible party resides or has his/her/its business address out of state and service cannot be effected by certified return receipt mail, then service may be made by first-class mail.
- (iv) In the event the violation relates to a condition on a property in the City, substituted service may be effected by posting the property with the administrative penalty order and mailing a copy of the order to the responsible party in violation, at the address of the property on which the violation has occurred or is occurring.
- (v) If the responsible party in violation or other person entitled to service cannot be located or service cannot be effected as set forth in this section, service may be made by publication in a Sacramento newspaper of general circulation which is most likely to give actual notice to the owner. The failure of any person to receive such administrative penalty order shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this section against any other responsible party. Service by certified mail in the manner herein provided shall be effective on the date of mailing.

- (3) Amount of administrative penalty. Unless the city council has by resolution or by ordinance adopted a separate and distinct administrative penalty for the particular violation, the amount of the administrative penalty to be imposed shall be set by the department head or his/her designee responsible for issuing the administrative penalty order. Each day a violation continues or occurs constitutes a separate violation. Unless otherwise provided in this code, administrative penalties may be imposed in any amount not less than $100.00 nor more than $25,000.00 per violation. In determining the amount of the administrative penalty to be imposed, the City official shall consider factors including but not limited to the seriousness of the violation, the responsible party's efforts to correct the violation, the injury/damage, if any, suffered by any member of the public, any instances in which the responsible party has been in violation of the same or similar code provisions in the previous three years, the amount of City staff time which was expended investigating or addressing the violation, and the amount of administrative penalties which have been imposed in similar situations. The amount of the administrative penalty shall be set according to the following schedule:

- a) Level A violations are violations that present a substantial probability that death or serious physical harm to the public at large or person(s) would result therefrom. Level A violations shall be subject to an administrative penalty of $5,000.00 to $25,000.00;

Level B violations shall be subject to an administrative penalty of $2,500.00 to $4,999.99;
- c) Level C violations are violations that present circumstances that either (1) are likely to cause and/or do cause harm to public or private property or (2) show repeated or continuous noncompliance with (i) a hearing examiner's order or orders, or (ii) orders or notices of violation issued by any agency or commission authorized to issue such orders or notices. Level C violations shall be subject to an administrative penalty of $1,000.00 to $2,499.99;
- d) Level D violations are violations other than Level A, B, or C

No notice of appeal is valid unless accompanied by the appeal fee, unless otherwise waived pursuant to Section 2.06.490 of the City Code. In the event an appeal fee is waived and the violation results in a lien against the appellant's property, the appeal fee which was waived shall be added to the amount of the lien. The appeal fee shall be :
