Honoring Mike Kashiwagi Upon Being Named American Public Works Association Top Ten Public Works Leader of the Year for 2001

WHEREAS, Mike Kashiwagi currently serves as the City of Sacramento's Director of Public Works and has proven himself to be extremely talented not only from a technical, engineering perspective, but also cognizant of the value of integrating community involvement and input into the City's project delivery processes; and

WHEREAS, under Mike's leadership as Director of Public Works, comprehensive traffic engineering, capital improvement, transportation, public education, and other projects have been brought to successful completion by drawing upon the tremendous resources and counsel our community members offer; and

WHEREAS, Mike also recognizes the need for long-term, strategic planning in government, and his employees now develop business plans from the ground up and use them as their guideposts in ensuring the delivery of quality products to the City's customers; and

WHEREAS, Mike also believes strongly in regional approaches and solutions that look beyond our city boundaries and consistently works to forge strong partnerships with key regional organizations to bring about positive change; and

WHEREAS, Mike is a leader in every sense of whom the City of Sacramento's citizens and customers can be very proud.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby commend Mike Kashiwagi for his numerous professional and community contributions and congratulate him on being named a Top Ten Public Works Leader of the Year for 2001 by the American Public Works Association.

ISSUED: This 22nd Day of May 2001.
