of the City Council

Recognizing Co-chairs of the City of Sacramento's 150th Anniversary

WHEREAS, former City of Sacramento mayors' Phillip Isenberg, R. Burnett Miller, and Anne Rudin graciously accepted to be co-chairs of the City of Sacramento's 150th Anniversary Committee; and

WHEREAS, Mayors' Phillip Isenberg, R. Burnett Miller, and Anne Rudin will assist the City in its yearlong series of events and activities, commencing in August 1999 and concluding in September of 2000 and through their guidance and wisdom, the City of Sacramento will help to educate our community about the City's vast heritage and diversity; and

WHEREAS, as the oldest incorporated city in California, not to mention its significance as the State Capitol, Sacramento has enjoyed 150 years of history – rich in cultural, religious, ethnic and economic growth; and

WHEREAS, the City of Sacramento marks the significance of its 150th anniversary because we are, in fact, the focal point for the entire valley and because the people of Sacramento deserve a celebration of major proportions; and

WHEREAS, Sacramento has much to be proud of and, through former mayors' Phillip Isenberg, R. Burnett Miller, and Anne Rudin, we look forward with tremendous excitement and anticipation to a yearlong celebration that Sacramento will long remember with great pride.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento that we do hereby commend Phillip Isenberg, R. Burnett Miller and Anne Rudin for their time, commitment and dedication to this worthwhile project.

ISSUED: This 24th Day of August 1999.
