2. Administrative Protocols for Board Member Information

Mr. Thompson requested to know what public servant information is released, and if inadvertently released, how can the protocol be remedied.

Assistant City Clerk, Stephanie Mizuno reported on current protocol practices of the Public Records Act regarding 700 Form. A board member does not have to include residential information on the form unless working from that address. If a member has real property disclosures, one may use the parcel number. Reading the instruction “requirements and items not required to report” carefully would eliminate the need to submit residential information.

Mr. Thompson inquired if there is a way to modify the 700 Form.

Ms. Mizuno reported that 700 Forms may not be revised, and are retained by the City Clerk’s office seven years after board members leave office.
