Dear Frank:

This letter is written to provide you with what we feel is "permission" to apply for permits for alterations to the referenced site. You are applying at your own expense and your own risk. As the entity in control of the Premises via a long-term lease with a purchase option, we have no objections to your application and look forward to finalizing all documentation necessary to get a Country Waffles Restaurant open for business on the site.

Should there be any question regarding the validity of our approval, please contact me immediately. We believe the 'as built' plans we provided should assist you in preparing your plans.

Sincerely,

Howard Burns
