Certificate of Appreciation

In Recognition of Outstanding Citizenship for Activities Enhancing Community Betterment by Assisting the Residents of Silver Eagle Mobile Home Park in Their Time of Need

The Salvation Army and the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency are hereby awarded this Certificate of Appreciation for their participation in a collaborative effort with local government and community organizations to assist the 105 families of the Silver Eagle Mobile Home Park in Natomas, who had gone without gas for seven days while waiting for the park's owner to correct leaks and restore gas service. Pacific Gas & Electric stepped in to provide the project funding, The Salvation Army provided meal service and the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency provided portable heaters for each resident's home until such time as the gas was restored.
