of the City Council

Recognizing Triangle Park

WHEREAS, an urban park creates both an oasis and a sense of community; and

WHEREAS, the North Sacramento – Noralto neighborhood had only a weed-choked, trash-strewn lot where a park was supposed to be; and

WHEREAS, Triangle Park was opened to the children of this neighborhood on Sunday, June 22, 2003, because special groups of Sacramentans dedicated their time and labor to make this park a reality; and

WHEREAS, the groups that made this project possible are: Operating Engineers Local 3, Northern California Construction and Training, Navarette Landscaping, the Sacramento Tree Foundation and the Sacramento City Parks and Recreation Department.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize the opening of Triangle Park and commend Operating Engineers Local 3, Northern California Construction and Training, Navarette Landscaping, the Sacramento Tree Foundation and the Sacramento City Parks and Recreation Department for their generous contributions to the creation of a new urban oasis.

ISSUED: This 7th Day of August 2003.
