PRESENT: Commissioners Deise, Cavanaugh, and President Stacy.
ABSENT: Secretary Jaqueth.

CARPENTER ELIG. REG.

Opdyke, Alva J.
Barker, Leo
Rose, J. S.
Stahl, F. Earl

Mr. Joe Kiene, Carpenter Foreman, Messrs. Opdyke, Barker, Rose and Stahl, whose names appear on the Carpenter list, appeared before the Board requesting information concerning the rules governing appointments from layoff for men on the Carpenters' list. The Board explained the provisions of the rules pertaining to appointments and layoffs.

CAULKERS

Baker, Orval A.
Bauerly, J. A.
O'Brien, William
Squires, Norman H.

Messrs. Baker, Bauerly, O'Brien, and Squires, who had been employees of the Oak Park Water Co, which was recently purchased by the City, were examined by the Board. After discussion of their experience, qualifications and fitness for the position, and prior service with the Western California Water Company (Oak Park Water Co.) Dr. Stacy moved that these men be given the classification of July 20, 1938.

Caulker due to their long service; seconded by Mr. Cavanaugh and unanimously carried.

ALLEN, ARNOLD

Garbage Ex. #124

After considering a letter from Dr. Johnson, City Physician, stating that Mr. Allen's condition was now satisfactory, the Board interviewed Mr. Allen, computed his final grade and ordered that he be placed on the Garbage Ex. List #124 in accordance with his percentage received.

TRUITT, JAMES

Garbage Ex. #124

Mr. James C. Truitt appeared before the Board to request the additional ten points for Veteran's Preference, which were held up subject to clarification of his police record. This matter was continued until the receipt of further information concerning Mr. Truitt's record.

GARBAGEMAN EX. #124, NAMES REMOVED FROM

Clark, Fred
Haywood, Jack

After considering police records received from the Police Department after the date of the Garbage Ex.

amination, Mr. Deise moved that because of the nature of the police records, the names of Fred Clark and Jack Haywood be removed from the Garbage Ex. Eligible Register #124; seconded by Mr. Cavanaugh and unanimously carried.

DUNNING, ALFRED

After considering the appointment received from Mr. R. E. Mittelstaedt, Superintendent of the Water Department, for Alfred Dunning as Inspector, Mr. Cavanaugh moved that this appointment be referred back to Mr. Mittelstaedt with the request that a list of the duties of this position and the experience and qualifications of Mr. Dunning be forwarded to the Board; seconded by Mr. Deise and unanimously carried.
