Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing the Sacramento Jazz Jubilee 25th Anniversary

WHEREAS, with great vision and enthusiasm the Sacramento Traditional Jazz Society (STJS) presented the first Sacramento Jazz Jubilee in 1974; and

WHEREAS, jazz is recognized around the world as an original American art form and the Sacramento Jazz Jubilee has grown to be the world's largest traditional jazz festival; and

WHEREAS, the Jubilee is attended by people from around the world and across the United States bringing positive recognition to Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, the Jubilee is a major economic asset for Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, The Sacramento Traditional Jazz Society will present the 25th annual Sacramento Jazz Jubilee over Memorial Day weekend, May 22-25, 1998.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and the Council of the City of Sacramento that we do hereby proclaim the month of May to be Sacramento Jazz Jubilee month and encourage the citizens of Sacramento to participate in this very special annual event.

ISSUED: This 28th Day of April 1998.
