Recognizing Angela Torres President's Summit Participant

WHEREAS, the President's Summit for America's Future was a great experience for all Sacramento delegates including Angela Torres, a city of Sacramento Youth Commissioner who has provided input into a variety of City endeavors; and

WHEREAS, the Summit's purpose was for people from all over the nation to share various strategies to achieve the common goal of obtaining quality health, education and safety for all of America's youth; and

WHEREAS, Angela is a graduating senior at Saint Francis holding a 3.54 GPA and planning to attend U.C. Berkeley this fall; and

WHEREAS, Angela enjoyed her classes at Saint Francis, but the two most enjoyable were English (she has a passion for literature) and Science (her memory and knowledge of biology and anatomy is remarkable); and

WHEREAS, Angela's special interests and talents are reading, volunteering, participating in sports and attempting poetry, but the most rewarding and interesting is volunteering as demonstrated by her commitment to the Youth Commission, Sacramento ENRICHES, and the Arts Commission; and

WHEREAS, Angela's second love is politics and is involved in the Sacramento Civil Rights Network that worked to defeat Proposition 209; and

WHEREAS, Angela has set many goals in her life, one being to pursue pre-medicine, to study Women's Studies, English and Political Science with the ultimate goal of becoming a forensic pathologist.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and the City Council of the city of Sacramento, that we do hereby commend Angela Torres for her many accomplishments and recognize her for the many contributions she has made to our youth and wish her success in her life's endeavors.
