Resolution

of the City Council

Acknowledging the Sacramento Sierra Building And Construction Trades Council in the Renovation of an Education Facility at the Sacramento Zoo

WHEREAS, the education of our community in the field of ecology and natural resources is a primary goal of the Sacramento Zoological Park; and

WHEREAS, the partnership developed between the Sacramento Sierra Building and Construction Council, the City of Sacramento and the Sacramento Zoological Society have put together a volunteer team to renovate an old concession building into an educational discovery facility; and

WHEREAS, with the new facility the Sacramento Zoological Park will be able to expand its educational goals and help bring a strong message about our environment to the community; and

WHEREAS, the Sacramento Sierra Building and Construction Trades Council donated the supplies and labor to construct an outdoor holding facility at the zoo's Rare Feline Center; and

WHEREAS, the Sacramento Sierra Building and Construction Trades Council, in partnership with the City of Sacramento, John F. Otto, Inc. and the Sacramento Zoological Society contribute greatly to the construction and subsequent success of the Lake Victoria Project in 1995/96.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento that we do hereby commend the Sacramento Sierra Building and Construction Trades Council for its generous and exemplary contribution to the future success of the Sacramento Zoo to serve the citizens of Sacramento and the region with quality education and conservation programs.

ISSUED: This 2nd Day of February 1999.
