

Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing Gordon Duncan

WHEREAS, Gordon Duncan is leaving the City of Sacramento to further pursue his Fire Chief career with the Saratoga Fire Department, located in Santa Clara County near San Jose; and

WHEREAS, Gordon entered the City of Sacramento's Fire Department on October 30, 1978 and received several promotions thereafter; and

WHEREAS, Gordon was promoted to Captain in October of 1984, then to Battalion Chief/Fire Marshal in charge of Fire Prevention in April of 1996, and later that year accepted the position of Assistant Chief/Fire Marshal; and

WHEREAS, Gordon is a very knowledgeable, well-liked person who will be deeply missed by the Sacramento community, Fire Department, and fellow City employees; and

WHEREAS, Gordon will be joined by many of his friends and coworkers as he is honored with a Farewell Barbecue on Saturday, July 28, 2001 at Southside Park in Sacramento, California.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize Gordon Duncan for nearly 23 years of dedicated service to the City of Sacramento and commend him for all of his accomplishments within the Fire Department, wishing him our best in his future career endeavors.

ISSUED: This 24th Day of July 2001.
