Resolution

of the City Council

Commending the Volunteers who Performed Demolition of the Wood Park Playground in the Valley Hi Area

WHEREAS, Wood Park Playground in the Valley Hi area was a wooden pole playground built in 1974 and in need of renovation after 23 years; and

WHEREAS, Wood Park has been heavily utilized by sports and neighborhood groups, and is a valuable neighborhood resource to the community; and

WHEREAS, volunteers from the community graciously assisted the City of Sacramento in demolition of the old playground on Sunday, November 16, 1997 thereby saving the cost of demolition and enabling the purchase of additional playground equipment to benefit the community; and

WHEREAS, the Wood Park Neighborhood Association graciously performed and assisted the volunteer effort in the true spirit of being a good neighbor of the park; and

WHEREAS, the community can now benefit from the remodeled playground and the additional walk ways through the park.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and the Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize and commend the volunteer effort, as well as the cooperation between the City of Sacramento and community volunteers, for the outstanding example set forth in this project.

ISSUED: This 9th Day of December, 1997.
