

Sacramento Alley Names
Based On Sacramento Historic People
 List compiled by William Burg

B

Bordisso (Bill Bordisso, Lou Bordisso) Founders of "Old Ironsides" Tavern, received first city issued liquor license after Prohibition, Sacramento Solons player
 Baer (Max Baer) World champion boxer and Land Park resident
 Blue (Daniel Blue) His home was original location of St. Andrew's African Methodist Episcopal church
 Ball (Kathryn Uhl Ball) Sacramento artist, best known for watercolors and drawings of Sacramento landmarks, a legacy of Sacramento's participation in the Depression-era Federal Art Project

C

Colley (Nathaniel Colley) Civil rights attorney, NAACP vice-president
 Clayton (Sarah Clayton) Her advocacy helped found Sacramento County Hospital (current site of UC Davis Medical Center) and Sacramento Foundling's Home orphanage.
 Cooledge (Belle Cooledge) Sacramento's first woman mayor.

D

D'Allesandro (Settino "Sam" D'Allesandro) Founder of La Rosa restaurant
 Dunlap (George Dunlap) African-American owner of Dunlap's Dining Room restaurant, State Fair concession and dining service on Sacramento Northern Railway

E

Ewing (Dr. Elizabeth Ewing) Physician specializing in women's illnesses
 Edson (Katherine Philips Edson) Lobbyist for women's suffrage, safe milk, labor laws.

F

Foye (William R. S. Foye) Manager, Huntington & Hopkins Hardware
 Fong (W. Fong Yue) Chinese business owner, built mansion adjacent to Southside Park
 Freitas (Tony Freitas) Sacramento Solons baseball player, PCL Hall of Fame
 Fat (Frank Fat) Founder of local restaurant
 Fletcher (George and Barney Fletcher) Founders of St. Andrew's African Methodist Episcopal Church

G

Galarza (Ernesto Galarza) Mexican immigrant, labor activist
 Glide (Lizzie Glide) Business owner, land speculator
 Gallatin (Albert Gallatin) Huntington & Hopkins Hardware manager, original owner of the home that became the Governor's Mansion, consolidated streetcar system and electrified Sacramento via Folsom Powerhouse
 Grau (Henry Grau) Founder of Buffalo Brewery

N

Nevis (Manuel Nevis) Portuguese winemaker and master carpenter, established three wineries in Sacramento

Nushida (Kenso Nushida) First Japanese American baseball player to play for the Sacramento Solons, 1932

O

O'Neil (Mary Rooney O'Neil) First woman elected to Superintendent of Public Schools

P

Perez (Juan Perez) bandleader of "Banda de Guerra," state champion children's marching band sponsored by Honorifica, local Mexican American community organization

Price (Sophie Price) Schoolteacher, author, historian

Q

R

Ryan (John C. Ryan) Irish immigrant, founder of Sacramento's first brickyard

Ryan (Thomas Ryan) Captain of riverboat Flora, early owner of building now occupied by "Old Ironsides"

Robinson (Dr. Charles Robinson) A leader of the Sacramento City Settler's Association, involved in the Squatter's Riots of 1850

Ruhstaller (Frank Ruhstaller) Founder of Sacramento City Brewery

S

Silveira (Gabriel Silveira) Portuguese musician, bandleader, furniture store owner, community activist

Scott (Elizabeth Thorn Scott) Founder of first school for African American children

Satchell (Rev. Charles Satchell) First minister of Shiloh Baptist Church

Shooks (Samuel Shooks) African American hailed as "mayor" of Sacramento's Depression-era shantytown along Jibboom Street, sometimes called "Shooksville"

Strizek (Jere Strizek) Suburban developer, founder of "Town & Country Village"

T

Takeuchi (Tadashi Takeuchi) Soldier of 442nd Regimental Combat Team, killed in action in Vosges, France 1944

Thompson (Vincent "Ted" and Georgia Thompson) Owners of Thompson Funeral Home, Sacramento's first African American owned funeral home

Taverna (Fr. Dominic Taverna) Founder of the Dante Club, an Italian-American social/cultural society

U

Urbs Indomita (Indomitable City) Sacramento city motto

V