Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing California State University Sacramento's Homecoming Week November 1 – 6, 1999

WHEREAS, the Sacramento Mayor and City Council do hereby recognize the value and importance of having a prestigious campus of higher learning in our community; and

WHEREAS, this public institution has committed itself to be a community where teaching and learning are the fundamental values, and where people can come together as a community; and

WHEREAS, the California State University, Sacramento (CSUS) has played an integral part in the furthering of education, the arts and the economic growth of our city's region since 1948; and

WHEREAS, CSUS, located on the banks of the American River, has educated thousands of students and now has over 135,000 alumni that are making a difference worldwide; and

WHEREAS, the students, faculty, administration and alumni are approaching the new millennium with a clear vision and an even higher expectation of excellence; and

WHEREAS, California's Capital University continues to help shape the destiny of our region through their involvement in teaching, research contributions, partnerships and the dedication to providing academic excellence; and

WHEREAS, the students and alumni of "Sac State" extend an invitation for all to come to the campus and share in the activities of 1999 Homecoming Week culminating with the Homecoming Game on November 6th.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby recognize and proclaim November 1 through November 6 as Homecoming Week at California State University, Sacramento and congratulate the University as this celebration begins.

ISSUED: This 2nd Day of November 1999.
