Recognizing Dale Kooyman

WHEREAS, Dale Kooyman has chaired the Neighborhood Association Advisory Group (NAAG) of Area 1 for the past three years and has represented the Area 1 associations at incalculable meetings on issues affecting the Central City and the entire City of Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, Dale provided input for the creation of the Neighborhood Services Department, including ideas on structural organization and selection of Area Directors; and

WHEREAS, as chair of NAAG, Dale has led the community in assisting the city and the Council to put forth many new programs and policy changes; was instrumental in the setup and implementation of the early notification system to inform residents and businesses of various projects in their neighborhoods; worked tirelessly with city staff, Councilman Cohn and citizens to develop and implement the Midtown lighting project; and has worked to resolve numerous issues brought to NAAG including historic preservation, public safety, solid waste pick up, preferential parking, code enforcement and nuisance properties; and

WHEREAS, Dale also serves on the Board of the Boulevard Park Neighborhood Association and is a member of the Northeast Area Transportation Study Citizen Committee, Social Service Siting Committee, City/County Board on the Homeless on which he concentrates on the Case Management team, neighborhood liaison to the Midtown Business Association; and

WHEREAS, Dale has also served on a SACOG special committee to develop a more collaborative long-range transportation planning process, worked on a citizens' committee to revise street design standards, and helped plan the Mayor's Bus Tour for the Central City, has been a great support to the City Manager, and attended a Livable Communities Conference that assisted initiating a formal partnership with the Local Government Commission (LGC), which has provided valuable information on how financial and technical resources can be used to develop housing along the R Street Corridor.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby wish Dale Kooyman well as he steps down as NAAG Chair but are certain that Mr. Kooyman will be active as always in working to make the City of Sacramento and the Central City, in particular, a more vibrant and livable community.

ISSUED: This 13th Day of April, 1999.
